UM STUDENTS WIN IN NATIONAL JOURNALISM AWARDS PROGRAM

MISSOULA —

Five University of Montana students earned awards in the latest rounds of the Hearst Journalism Awards Program.

Beth Saboe, a junior from Sidney, won ninth place and a $500 award in the second round of the Hearst radio broadcast competition. Angela Marshall, a junior from Seeley Lake, came in 11th in radio and will receive an awards certificate.

Steve Dent, a junior from Bozeman, tied for 16th place in the latest round of the Hearst television broadcast competition. Martin Ross, a senior from Spokane, Wash., placed 20th. Both will receive an awards certificate.

Lisa Hornstein, a senior from Missoula, captured 15th place in the second round of the Hearst photojournalism competition in the "sports and news" category.

The Hearst competition is held across the nation at institutions that have accredited undergraduate journalism programs and are members of the Association of Schools of Journalism and Mass Communication.
